

PUBLIC NOTICE

2025 SECOND QUARTERLY PAYMENTS DATE (QPD)

ZIMRA hereby reminds all taxpayers that the Second Quarter Provisional Tax Payment is due on or before the 25th of June 2025. Taxpayers with other approved accounting years should be guided by the dates approved by the Commissioner. Taxpayers with other incomes outside the Final Deduction System (FDS) should make QPD payments and submit returns.

1. For the 2025 year of assessment, in calculating the estimated provisional tax:

A: Taxpayers whose estimated total income is more than 50% in foreign currency must apply the 50-50 basis in accounting for tax separately in foreign and local currency;

B: Taxpayers whose estimated total income is 50% or less in foreign currency must account for tax in the currency of trade.

The Second QPD will be 25% of the estimated provisional tax for the tax year ending 31st December 2025.

2. With effect from 1 January 2025 the Self-employed professionals, listed below, who used to pay presumptive tax are now required to also account for provisional tax (QPDS) as they are now on the Self-Assessment System unless if they are on FDS.

- (a) architects registered or required to be registered under the Architects Act [Chapter 27:01];
- (b) engineers or technicians registered or required to be registered under the Engineering Council Act [Chapter 27:22];
- (c) legal practitioners registered or required to be registered under the Legal Practitioners Act [Chapter 27:07];
- (d) health practitioners registered or required to be registered under the Health Professions Act [Chapter 27:19];
- (e) real estate agents registered or required to be registered under the Estate Agents Act [Chapter 27: 17];

These taxpayers are encouraged to visit the nearest ZIMRA Office for assistance where such is required.
