PUBLIC NOTICE: REMINDER TO ALL BUSINESS OPERATORS IN ZIMBABWE

The Zimbabwe Revenue Authority (ZIMRA) wishes to remind all the business community of the following:

i. Business operators are to be registered for Tax Purposes if trading.

ii. Every business should ensure that the purchasing customer is issued with Invoices, Till Slips or Receipts in currency tendered. We have noted that some are still using bureau de change to circumvent the issue of foreign currency tendered.

iii. All receipts, or invoices issued by a business operator should be readable in English language and correctly showing the currency tendered by the customer.

iv. Business operators registered for VAT must ensure that they are fiscalised with all their fiscal devices interfaced with the Authority servers.

v. Business operators are reminded to always keep their records for a period of more than the prescribed six years.

vi. Business operators should submit tax returns on all applicable tax heads and remit taxes due on time on or before the due date.
